

David Salmon Tribal Hall User Terms and Conditions

1. The David Salmon Tribal Hall (Tribal Hall) was built to provide a facility for traditional Athabascan uses that bring the Native community together. It will be used in a manner that reflects the Athabascan culture and values.
2. Use of the Tribal Hall is for Native individuals, the spouses of Native individuals, the parents of Native children, and organizations for the benefit of the Native community.
3. The Tribal Hall is a drug, alcohol, and tobacco free facility. Individuals and organizations disregarding this policy will be expelled immediately and not allowed to use the Tribal Hall for future events.
4. To use the Tribal Hall, a Tribal Hall application, cleaning fee, and rental fee (if required) must be submitted to TCC Administration in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. Please contact TCC Administration for the Tribal Hall application.
5. All Tribal Hall events are open to the community. Users may not expel or exclude individuals from the event. TCC Security can expel or exclude individuals if they are being disruptive or breaking the drug, alcohol, and tobacco policy, or these terms and conditions.
  - a. Users may request, in writing and at least 5 days prior to the day of event, that their event be closed to the public. User shall explain, in writing, why the event must be closed and TCC Administration will make a decision within three days of receiving the request.
6. Tribal Hall rates in a 24 hour period are as follows:
  - a. Up to five hours: $375
  - b. Five to nine hours: $575
  - c. Nine or more hours: $875
7. Funerals and memorial services have first priority in the use of the Tribal Hall, even if another event was booked first for the same date and time. No advance notice is required to reserve the Tribal Hall and these events will not be charged a rental fee, but are subject to the cleaning fee and security deposit requirements.
8. Hardship fundraisers are very important to the Native community and TCC understands their benefits to the families-in-need. "Hardship" is defined as a death in the Native community, an immediate medical emergency in which the family must travel to Anchorage or Seattle, or a search and recovery effort.
  - a. Hardship fundraisers do not take priority over ("bump") other previously scheduled events and may be canceled or postponed at the discretion of TCC only for funerals and memorial services. TCC will make every effort to accommodate hardship fundraisers if the preferred time and date is not available.

- b. Hardship fundraisers do not require advanced notice in order to reserve the Tribal Hall, will not be charged a rental fee, but are subject to the cleaning fee and security deposit requirement.
  - c. It is expected that all proceeds of hardship fundraisers will benefit the families-in-need.
9. All other non-funeral, non-memorial service and non-hardship fundraiser events must be booked at least one (1) week prior to the event. Priority of these events is booked on a “first come, first booked” basis. The rental fee and cleaning fee must be paid within (3) business days of the scheduled event. These events may be canceled or postponed at the discretion of TCC only for funerals and memorial services.
  10. All non-funeral, non-memorial, and hardship fundraiser Users understand and agree that their event may be vacated or postponed only for funeral and memorial services. TCC strives to ensure these events are not cancelled or postponed. However, in the instance where a funeral or memorial service takes priority over another planned event, User agrees to hold TCC harmless for any and all expenses, fees, costs, and losses, of any nature, that User may suffer as a result of the cancellation or postponement of use of the Tribal Hall.
  11. All events, including funeral and memorial services, may be canceled or postponed in the event of a natural disaster, catastrophic event, act of God, or any other event that requires the Tribal Hall to be used as an emergency shelter, staging area for emergency response, or any other use that Tanana Chiefs Conference deems necessary and appropriate. User agrees to hold TCC harmless for any and all expenses, fees, costs, and losses, of any nature, that User may suffer as a result of the cancellation or postponement of use of the Tribal Hall.
  12. If an event is cancelled, TCC will refund the rental and cleaning fee
  13. All Users must be over 21 and accept responsibility for the conduct of all persons attending the event. If the User leaves at any time during the event he/she MUST designate responsibility to another adult and inform the TCC Security Guard at 452-8251 ext. 3333.
  14. The User is responsible for any and all damage done to the Tribal Hall, its equipment, or the loss of such equipment. Any damage or breakage must be immediately reported to the TCC Security Guard at 452-8251 ext. 3333.
  15. The User assumes all liability for injury to person(s) or damage to property arising out of their use of the Tribal Hall. The User shall indemnify and hold harmless TCC, its employees, agents, officers, and directors for any claims arising out of an act or omission of any nature whatsoever by User and User’s guests causing damage to any person or property in the use of the Tribal Hall. User shall pay TCC for all damages and costs caused by User’s event.
  16. All fees must be paid prior to the event unless a P.O. has been issued. Credit Cards are not accepted. All checks made Payable to Tanana Chiefs Conference.

17. The User will be responsible for providing firewood, building fires and preparing the Tribal Hall for occupancy. TCC is not responsible for arranging and preparing the tribal hall for the User.
18. Regardless of whether the Tribal Hall fees were fees waived, all users will have a cleaning fee of $200.00. Users are asked to pick up all trash inside tribal hall, outside tribal hall, take to the dumpster on side of the building, and put up all chairs and tables.
19. An inspection of the Tribal Hall will be completed by the TCC Security Guard after each event.
20. Any special equipment, sound systems, microphone, stage, etc., must be requested at least five (5) days prior to the event. The equipment must be "signed out" and "signed in" by TCC Security.
21. The User is not permitted to use the meat room or any TCC equipment in the meat room.
22. Events must end by 11:59 p.m. the day of the event. Requests for extended hours are to be made to TCC Administration.
23. Due to DEC Regulations, User may not charge for food prepared in the Tribal Hall.
24. The Tribal Hall shall not be used as sleeping quarters.
25. Animals, other than service animals, are not allowed in the Tribal Hall.
26. A $200 dollar cleaning fee is charged for every use of the DSTH that is paid directly to the cleaners.
27. Cleaning fees are separate payments from Rental Fees.
28. Cleaning fee need to be paid per event, when multiple events are scheduled.
  - a.