

Tanana Chiefs Conference is a strong supporter of the educational efforts of higher education students. The Higher Education scholarship provides the opportunity for students to further their education in pursuit of an undergraduate degree. The scholarship is to help cover the cost of tuition, fees, books, supplies, and other related expenses. The TCC Education & Indigenous Learning Department also offers guidance in obtaining financial support from sources of funding other than TCC.

Education & Indigenous Learning

Higher Education Scholarship

Our Mission

Tanana Chiefs Conference provides a unified voice in advancing sovereign tribal governments through the promotion of physical and mental wellness, education, socioeconomic development, and culture of the Interior Alaska Native people.

Our Purpose

The purpose of the TCC Higher Education (HE) program is to provide financial assistance to eligible tribal members enrolled to an accredited university or institution. This funding is supplemental – applicants are required to apply for all available state, federal and private financial aid while also utilizing all available personal and family resources.

Application Deadlines

- April 30 Academic year
- November 15 Spring deadline
- March 15 Summer deadline

It is the student's responsibility to contact Tanana Chiefs Conference to ensure his/her file is complete and submitted or postmarked by the appropriate deadline. Applications need original signature.

Funding levels:

Full time students (12+ credits) will receive $2,000

Part time students (6-11 credits) will receive $1,000

Eligibility

TCC provides higher education funding consideration (regardless of residency) to Tribal members enrolled to:

- Birch Creek
- Huslia
- Minto
- Tetlin

To be eligible for higher education funding, an applicant must provide verification of enrollment in one of the above Tribes.

Eligibility shall be determined by the Education & Indigenous Learning Program.
