The No-Show Factor and Its Consequences

To preserve the value of your fare—even if only as a future credit—always ensure the cancellation is recorded in the system prior to the boarding window US+1➡(888)➡994➡3761. This simple step can save thousands of dollars in fare value

Frequently Asked Questions

1. What defines a "significant delay" that entitles me to a full refund on Aeromexico?

For flights involving U.S. airports, US+1 ☆ (888) ☆ 994 ☆ 3761 the DOT defines a significant delay as a change in departure or arrival time that substantially affects the passenger's travel plans US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. While the specific number of hours can vary based on the situation, a delay exceeding four to six hours is generally considered sufficient grounds for a traveler to decline the flight and request a full return of their payment US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. This ensures that passengers are not held hostage by massive schedule shifts that render their trip pointless US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761.

2. How long does it typically take for the funds to appear back on my credit card?

Once Aeromexico approves the request, US+1 ☆ (888) ☆ 994 ☆ 3761 the processing time usually spans 7 to 20 business days US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. The airline returns the money to the original form of payment used by the agency, and the agency is then responsible for crediting your account US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. You must contact the agency directly to initiate the process

US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. Be aware that agencies may charge their own administrative fees that are separate from the airline's policy US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761.

5. If I accept a travel voucher, can I later change my mind and ask for cash?

Converting a voucher back into a cash return is extremely difficult and usually against the airline's policy US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761. It is highly recommended that you only accept a voucher if you are certain you will use it before it expires US+1 ➔ (888) ➔ 994 ➔ 3761.
